MR NM KAPADIA for Petitioner No. 1

RULE SERVED for Respondent No. 1-2

CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE R.P.DHOLAKIA

Date of decision: 14/09/2004

ORAL JUDGEMENT

The detenu has been detained under the provisions of Gujarat Prevention of Anti-Social Activities Act, 1985 (hereinafter referred to as `the Act of 1985') by the order dated 22-3-2004 passed by the Police Commissioner, Ahmedabad City, and he has been declared as bootlegger.

2. It is now well settled that unless the activities of a person as bootlegger has disturbed the maintenance of public order, he cannot be detained under the Act. Reliance is placed on a decision of the case of Piyush Kantilal Mehta Vs. Commissioner of Police, Ahmedabad & Ors. reported in AIR 1989 SC 491.

3. Heard learned advocate for the petitioner and the learned AGP for the State. Also perused the record. It is submitted by the learned advocate for the petitioner that only a solitary offence has been registered against the detenu at Satellite Police Station being Prohi.C.R.No.5022 of 2004 on 13-3-2004. Drawing my attention towards page 23 page 3 of the compilation, Mr.N.M.Kapadia has contented that when the order of detention was passed, the detenu was in police custody in the aforesaid offence which aspect ought to have been considered by the authority while passing the detention order. In this connection, he has drawn my attention towards the case of Amritlal and Others Vs. Union Govt. Through Secy., Ministry of Finance and Others, 2001 SCC (Cri) 147 wherein it was held at Head note as under:

> "Preventive Detention--Detention order-Subjective satisfaction--Detenu already in jail-Detaining authority must be satisfied on the basis of available cogent material about likelihood of the detenu being released on bail and not merely about likelihood of his moving application for bail--In absence of such satisfaction detention order cannot be sustained--Prevention of Illicit Traffic in Narcotic drugs and Psychotropic Substances act, 1988, S.3(1)"

4. It is further submitted that co-detenu has also been released by this Court vide oral judgment dated 8-9-2004 passed in Special Civil Application No.6311 of 2004 and hence, it is prayed that present applicant also may be released.

5. It seems that there is non-application of mind on the part of detaining authority as detenu was in police custody when the impugned order of detention was passed and hence, in view of the judgment rendered in Amritlal (supra) and also in view of the fact that co-detenu was also released by this Court while allowing Special Civil Application No.6311 of 2004 on 8-9-2004, the continued detention of the detenu is illegal and the same cannot be sustained.

6. The petition is allowed. The impugned order of detention dated 22-3-2004 passed against the detenu Bharatsinh Bhanvarsinh Solanki is hereby quashed and set aside. The detenu is ordered to be set at liberty forthwith, if not required in any other case. Rule is made absolute accordingly. Direct service is permitted.
